Scenario 1:

- Shirley opens the pet adoption website on her tablet
- Shirley goes to the search bar and filters by her pet requirements. She clicks low-maintenance and pre-trained.
- Shirley finds Benny's profile and is ready to apply for adoption
- Shirley submits her application and schedules a video-call
- Shirley arranges a pickup time and adopts Benny.

Scenario 2:

- Emily creates an account on the pet adoption website. She browses available dogs and applies filters to find a small dog under 5 years old.
- Emily finds "Buddy," a three-year-old Beagle mix. She reads his profile, checks his medical history, and learns about his personality. She decides to apply for adoption and submits an online application.
- Emily receives a confirmation email. The next day, she is notified that her application has been approved. She schedules a virtual meeting with Buddy's current owner.
- During the meeting, Emily asks questions about Buddy's behavior and care routine. She decides to proceed and arranges a time to meet Buddy in person.
- Emily visits Buddy's owner interacts with him and finalizes the adoption paperwork. She pays the adoption fee and takes Buddy home, excited to start her new journey as a pet owner.

Scenario 3:

- Billy realizes he needs help with his work and discusses with his wife about getting a dog.
- Billy opens the pet adoption website on his computer with his wife.
- Billy goes to the search bar and filters specific breeds that would be helpful for a farm.
- Billy finds Tommy, a Border Collie, and decides to apply.
- Later, he receives an email saying that his application has been approved and schedules a video call with the current owner of Tommy.
- The call goes well, and they arrange the paperwork and set up a pickup date, where Billy then adopts Tommy.

Scenario 4:

- Dan opens the pet adoption site
- Dan views the profile of Rocky who is tagged as "Senior", "Low Energy", "Special needs"
- Dan bookmarks this dog profile to save for later
- Dan comes back and applies for adoption
- Dan submits his application and schedules a video call
- Dan schedules a pick up time for adoption of Rocky